

Dr. Peter Green was born in Newfoundland, Canada's most easterly province. He received his Master of Music and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees with full scholarship from the University of Southern California under the direction of Stewart Gordon, where he also served as Assistant Lecturer of Piano. While completing undergraduate studies at Memorial University of Newfoundland, Dr. Green performed twice on CBC television and was selected to study at the Guildhall School of Music & Drama, London, England in the Fall of 1987. In July 1989, he received first prize in the national piano competition of the Canadian Federation of Music Teachers Associations in Edmonton, Alberta. Solo and collaborative performances include The National Conference on Piano Pedagogy, Schaumburg, Illinois, University of Southern California, Los Angeles City College, Los Angeles Pierce College, Glendale College, University of La Verne, Central Michigan University, the Crystal Cathedral, the Cathedral of our Lady of the Angels, and the Pasadena Conservatory of Music.

Dr. Green currently serves as Chair of the Visual & Performing Arts Division at Glendale College, Glendale, California, where he oversees ten Departments, including Music, Theatre, Dance, Studio Art, Ceramics, Art History, Photography, Digital Animation, Media Arts, and Graphic Design. Dr. Green is also director of the Glendale College Concert Singers. In addition to his duties at the College, Dr. Green is Director of Music at San Marino Community Church, in San Marino, California. Dr. Green is on the board of directors of Glendale Arts and the Mark Thallander Foundation.

Dr. Green has recorded a CD of music for piano, horn, and flute, released in May 2008. "Souvenirs," is a compact disc featuring Dr. Green, with internationally known colleagues Vieri Bottazzini, flute (Istanbul, Turkey), and Bruce Bonnell, horn (Mount Pleasant, MI). Just recently Dr. Green recorded a piano/organ CD with organist Mark Thallander that was released in Spring, 2017.

Dr. Green was asked to conduct the Mark Thallander Foundation Chorus at the International Haydn Festival in Vienna, Austria in July 2009 and was conductor of the Mark Thallander Foundation Chorus in Maui, Hawaii in April, 2016 and Stockton, CA in April 2019. Dr. Green is also a frequent recitalist, adjudicator, and in demand as a clinician in both piano and choral music throughout Canada and the USA. Dr. Green was the featured soloist on the Beethoven 4th piano concerto in August 2017 with the Los Angeles International Conducting Institute.

Dr. Green has also directed the Glendale College Concert Singers at a performance with Los Angeles based Filipino dance group, Kayamanan Ng Lahi, in September 2017 at the Ford Amphitheatre in Hollywood, and a performance in April 2019 for the Armenian Genocide remembrance at the Alex Theatre in Glendale.
